Editorial

Hello everyone,

I am going to take this opportunity to introduce myself. My name is Lydia and I am the newest addition to the Kulin Shire. I will be taking on the role of the CRC Manager (and editor of the update!). I started in the role on Monday so I am still finding my feet but am very much looking forward to getting involved in the community both personally and professionally. I am also looking forward to delivering new community activities and workshops in the near future.

A bit of background information, I was born in Carnarvon and have lived in Geraldton for the majority of my life besides long term overseas travel and other regional destinations. I have been studying Community Development externally through Murdoch University for the past 3 years. I enjoy camping, outdoor activities, the gym and team sports including touch football. I have played a lot of badminton in the past but might need to brush up on my tennis and hockey skills.

In the coming weeks the Kulin Update will be undergoing maintenance. If anyone has any suggestions or requests please feel free to get in touch with either myself or Rachael, your continued contributions are extremely valuable.

It would be great to meet some new faces so please swing by the centre, even if it's just to say hello or feel free to give me a call.

Lydia Young
CRC Manager

CEO CORNER

It is always a joy as a community leader to be discussing stories of success, particularly when the wider community and in this case the Nation recognises the achievement of the program. I refer to Tanya Dupagne and the CAMP KULIN program – and their 5th Birthday coming this weekend.

True to the Paul Kelly lyric – “from little things; big things grow”, and this has been the story of Camp Kulin. From the initial summer school holiday camps, now through to an in house staff providing services to regional schools on a weekly basis, the holiday programs (all year round) and in term leadership camps for kids and the recent commencement of the Aspire Inspire Ladies Camp, the growth has been amazing, if not somewhat expected.

The list of awards and credits that Tanya from her efforts and Camp Kulin from its results is growing as rapidly as the program – a byplay of which is the credit that flows to our community. Camp Kulin could not operate or function without the support of Kulin people and wider community and for this support our thanks are immeasurable. A special recognition to the volunteers who commit help and support to the programs, again without you Camp Kulin would not be possible. Thank you.

Therefore the 5th Birthday celebrations this weekend are for all those who make this contribution to society in the betterment of the children of future generations. Congratulations Tanya, congratulations Kulin, congratulations all supporters of Camp Kulin, it is a worthy thing you do.

#NOTJUSTTEAANDSCONES

Kulin CWA members attend the Protest Rally at Parliament House in Perth.

"Food does not come from the supermarket.
It comes from out there,
out in regional WA."
CWA of WA State President.

From its inception in 1927, the CWA has put forward motions and initiated actions, which have improved the quality of rural education and provided significant opportunities for rural students. Too numerous to go into in this article, the CWA has been instrumental in bringing about positive changes to the lives of many Australians through the lobbying of both State and Federal Government, changes which many of us often take for granted. Did you know for instance that the Kulin CWA arranged the regular visits to Kulin by a doctor based in Kondinin? These visits began in 1945.

Most of these changes have been done well away from the spotlight, but in the light of the vociferous opinions among the CWA of WA's 2000 members, The CWA of WA's State President made the call to go ahead with a rally to protest planned cuts to rural education funding. The rally was timed to coincide with the first day of State Parliament for 2018, on Tuesday the 13th of February.

On Monday Kulin CWA produced t-shirts bearing the slogans, #NOTJUSTTEAANDSCONES and #RURALSTUDENTSMATTER and early on Tuesday morning, members of Kulin CWA joined with members from Lake Varley and Brookton and travelled to Perth to join the 400 plus CWA members, some of whom had journeyed from beyond Esperance to attend the rally. It was indeed inspiring to see women from numerous CWA branches stand united.

It was also gratifying to see that the Premier Mark McGowan and Ministers Sue Ellery and Allanah MacTiernan had altered their schedules to attend the rally. In her address, CWA State President Heather Allen thanked the Premier and Ministers Ellery and MacTiernan for attending the rally and said that the CWA of WA welcomed the State Government's decision to reverse some proposed education cuts, which include:

- Schools of the Air, which will remain open in regional Western Australia.
- Funding for the Gifted and Talented Program in schools, which will be maintained.
- Intake into the Level 3 classroom teacher program, which will not be put on hold.
- Accommodation at Northam Residential College, which will remain open

CWA UP IN ARMS
It has been 94 years coming but the Country Women's Association of WA is about to hold its first protest. Members will walk to Parliament House on February 13 to rally against cuts to agricultural colleges, camp schools and Moora Residential College.
As they say, the CWA is not just tea and scones.

Mrs. Allen went onto say that the remaining planned cuts were still of great concern to members. These proposed cuts include:

- Reduced funding for 5 agriculture colleges.
- Closure of 6 department camp schools.
- Closure of residential accommodation in Moora.
- Cessation of funding for Landsdale Farm School.

She pointed out that the proposed cuts come at a time when people are beginning to understand the concept of 'paddock to plate delivery' and the importance of agriculture and the production of food. On a lighter note, she did offer the Premier the skills of CWA rural members, many of whom have had generations of experience of running the finances of farms to help balance the State Budget. The Hon Mark McGowan thought that this was a 'wonderful idea', but in his address to the protestors, he did not waver on the remaining proposed funding cuts. Loud cries of 'shame' (and a few other words not to be repeated in a family-friendly, community magazine) reverberated through the air, when Premier McGowan said that the cuts were not something that the State Government wanted to do, but that they were being forced to make these cuts because the previous Barnett Government had created " a very difficult financial environment."

Education Minister Sue Ellery's voice was drowned out as she attempted to explain the funding cuts and emphasise the State Government's continued commitment to rural education. Minister Ellery was also presented with a pillow, which represented the head of one student who will no longer be able to board at Moora College. A placard held up by an angry CWA protestor read,

' SUE ELLERY

MY THREE GRANDKIDS FROM MARBLE BAR BOARD AT MOORA. LET THEM STAY.

Although we would never have, as suggested by the cartoon in the West, thrown scones and fruit cake at the Honourable Members of Parliament who were dotted around looking quite uneasy, CWA plans to bring tea and scones with us, to enjoy on the East lawn, were thwarted as Parliamentary rules preclude this. We also noted that there was quite a sizeable police presence – perhaps this was in case we tried to smuggle in the contraband items.

All in all, it was a proud day for the Kulin CWA, and the consensus was that the rally was effective. And to quote one member, "We shall just have to keep hammering away!"

Controlled and owned by Growers – Co-operative Structure

Bin Network Capability and Capacity—Core Business

Harvest Efficiency—Handling bigger and faster harvests, paddock to port to customer

Essential Priorities if Elected

1. CBH must remain a strong grower-owned and controlled co-operative.
2. The current bin network rationalisation needs to ensure the remaining bins in our network are urgently upgraded to cope with the extra throughput and segregations.
3. Ensure remaining bins have the capacity and capability to receive larger and faster harvests.
4. Be an effective marketer of grain, not just a seller or trader. Understand our customers’ needs.
5. Investigate more flexible ways to return rebates from CBH to members while retaining the current grower-owned structure.

My Profile	Board Experience	Industry Contribution
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Grain grower for twenty five years, farming in both the York and Koorda Shires. • Extensive Board experience with major commodity-based agricultural organisations in Australia and overseas. • Bulk agricultural commodity, transport, logistics, shipping and trading experience. • Strong co-operative background. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • GrainGrowers Ltd—Director • COGGO (Council of Grain Grower Organisations) - Director • WA Farmers (WAFF) - Director • Ravensdown Co-operative—Former Director • United Farmers Co-operative—Former Director 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • GGA (Grower Group Alliance) - Advisory Member • Co-ops WA (Co-operative Federation of WA) - Former Councillor • York Community Bendigo Bank—Former Founding Director

Investing in Your Future

Grains, Seeds and Hay
Industry Funding Scheme

LAKES LOCAL ACTION GROUP
WORKING FOR YOUR INDUSTRY

Are you interested in the biosecurity of Western Australia's agricultural industries?

Western Australian producers and other stakeholders in the dairy, beef, grain, seed, hay, sheep and/or goat industries and supply chains are invited to apply for positions on Industry Funding Scheme management committees.

Industry Funding Schemes enable agricultural industries to raise funds to address priority pests and diseases at a whole-of-industry level.

The schemes are industry-driven and overseen by a management committee made up of producers and other stakeholders with appropriate industry knowledge and expertise.

Members of the committees are appointed by the Minister for Agriculture and Food. Support is provided to the schemes and management committees by the Department of Primary Industries and Regional Development.

From 1 July 2018, there will be one vacancy on each of the management committees:

- Cattle Industry Funding Scheme
- Grains, Seeds and Hay Industry Funding Scheme
- Sheep and Goat Industry Funding Scheme

Committees meet quarterly on dates agreed by members, and members are remunerated, including sitting fees and travel expenses.

The committee terms of reference, the selection criteria for members of the Industry Management Committees, and guidelines for committee member nominations are available on the Department of Primary Industries and Regional Development website at agric.wa.gov.au. Search for 'Industry Management Committee terms'.

Expressions of Interest should consist of a two page letter addressing the selection criteria in addition to a current resume of a maximum of two pages.

Submit your Expression of Interest for one or more of the management committees to Rebecca Heath by 9.00 am on Thursday, 8 March 2018.
